

SERVICE WINS HANDICAP EVENT

H. G. Bedwell's Horses Capture Three of the Six Races at Charleston.

Charleston, S. C., December 18.—Two handicaps and four selling races made up the card of six events that furnished the sport at Palmetto Park to-day. The Judding handicap, a six-furlong dash for all ages, was the feature, and was won by Lochiel, owned by H. G. Bedwell, who continued his streak by winning the second event with Right Easy. The selling handicap was won by the ten to one chance, Service, which beat Dick Deadwood half a length in a driving finish. Colonel Cook, the favorite, would not extend himself at any part of the race, and finished a poor last. As H. G. Bedwell also trained Master Jim, the winner of the testing event, it meant that he had three winners again this afternoon, the same as on the previous day.

First race—two-year-olds, selling, two furlongs—Doctor Kendall, 102 (Buxton), 3 to 2, 5 to 3 to 4, first; H. M. Madi, 110 (McTaggart), even, 1 to 2, 1 to 4, second; H. M.
